Have you ever been convicted of any felony? (If your conviction was classified as a misdemeanor, mark “No”)

No       Yes

Have you ever been convicted of an offense under Chapter 481, Health and Safety Code (Texas Controlled Substances Act) or under the law of any other jurisdiction involving a controlled substance as defined by Chapter 481, Health and Safety Code?

If you answered “Yes” to either question, then you are not eligible for the State-funded award unless:

You have a certificate of discharge by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice or another correctional facility. You have completed a period of probation ordered by a court and at least two years have elapsed from the date of the receipt of discharge or probation completion, or

You have been pardoned and the record of the offense has been expunged from your record.

If none apply to you, then you cannot be considered for the award.

Statement of Child Support Arrearages

“Under Section 231.006, Family Code, the vendor of applicant certifies that the individual or business entity named in this contract, bid, or application is not ineligible to receive the specified grant, loan or payment and acknowledges that this contract may be terminated and payment may be withheld if this certification is inaccurate.”

A student who is obligated to pay child support and is more than 30 days delinquent cannot be considered for any state-funded grant or loan. Please answer questions below:

Are you currently more than 30 days delinquent on child support payments?

No                       Yes

If you answered “Yes”, then you are not eligible for state-funded grant or loan unless, (if applicable to you, make a selection below):

- All arrearages (late payments) have been paid,
- You are in compliance with a written repayment agreement or court order for the delinquency, or
- The court of jurisdiction over the child support order has granted you an exemption from being denied state-funded grants and loans as part of a court-supervised effort to improve earnings and child support payments.

If none apply to you, then you cannot be considered for any state-funded grant or loan.

Federal law requires almost all male U.S. citizens and immigrants, ages 18 to 25, to register with Selective Service. State law (Texas Education Code, Section 51.9095) requires students to submit this Statement of Selective Service Registration for all state-funded programs. Please mark only one option:

I was assigned the sex of “male” at birth, and I am registered.

I was assigned the sex of “female” at birth, and I am not required to register.

I was assigned the sex of “male” at birth, but I am not required to register because:

- I am under age 18
- I am over age 25
- I immigrated to the U.S. after age 25
- Other: _____

I was assigned the sex of “male” at birth, I am age 18 to 25, but I am not registered, and I am not exempt from registration. (Selecting this option means you cannot receive aid from any state-funded programs).
